KEVIN COLE ART STUDIO AND PRIVATE COLLECTION TOUR

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 7

Join Art Partners for a special opportunity to meet renowned artist, Kevin Cole in his studio and home. The day begins in Kevin's studio, providing a look at his current work and creative process. Kevin, an Atlantan since 1985, has received numerous accolades as both an artist and an educator. His colorful and dynamic work draws inspiration from African American culture and music, specifically jazz, blues, R&B, and gospel, uniting these genres' rich history and inherent dynamism. David C. Driskell, Distinguished University Professor of Art, University of Maryland observed, "I walked into Kevin's studio with large northern windows and was immediately surrounded by a series of powerful wallworks that creatively bestride both paintings and sculpture done in an unusually accomplished manner." Cole's work was most recently featured in a solo exhibition at the Museum of Contemporary Art of Georgia.

After touring Mr. Cole's studio, we will then move down the road to his home, where he will share his personal art collection. Kevin and Karen Cole's diverse and cultural collection boasts approximately 350 pieces, with a focus on artists who are currently or were educators at some point in their lives, including Henry Ossawa Tanner, Radcliffe Bailey, Sam Gilliam, Kara Walker, Frank Herrmann, Jacob Lawrence, Faith Ringgold, and Romare Bearden, among others.

This is great opportunity to see inspiration, creation, and the collection of an incredible artist.

When: Sunday, October 7, 1:00 p.m.

Where: Kevin and Karen Cole's Home (Fairburn)

Cost: $12 for members, $17 for non-members

HIGH ARTS DAY

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 5

Art Partners is looking forward to this year's High Arts Day, celebrating Fast Forward: Modern Moments 1913>>2013. The committee is hard at work creating an inspiring day of activities for the 17th annual event on Monday, November 5.

This year's event features private shopping and light breakfast at Neiman Marcus, Lenox Square and tours of two breathtaking Atlanta homes designed by noted interior designer, John Oetgen.

This year's silent auction and trunk show promise to showcase stunning art and fashions, followed by the elegant luncheon and informal modeling by Neiman Marcus. This day of inspiration concludes with a private viewing of the High's fall exhibition, Fast Forward: Modern Moments 1913>>2013.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 25 - DEATH COMES TO PEMBERLEY BY P.D. JAMES

A rare meeting of literary genius: P. D. James, long among the most admired mystery writers of our time, draws the characters of Jane Austen's beloved novel Pride and Prejudice into a tale of murder and emotional mayhem.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 26 - THE SWAN THIEVES BY ELIZABETH KOSTOVA

Andrew Marlow, a psychiatrist, has a perfectly ordered life--solitary, perhaps, but full of devotion to his profession and the painting hobby he loves. This order is destroyed when the renowned painter Robert Oliver attacks a canvas in the National Gallery of Art and becomes Marlow's patient. When Oliver refuses to talk or cooperate, Marlow finds himself going beyond his own legal and ethical boundaries to understand the secret that torments this silent genius, a journey that will lead him into the lives of the women closest to Robert Oliver and toward a tragedy at the heart of French Impressionism.

Moving from American museums to the coast of Normandy, from the late nineteenth century to the late twentieth, from young love to last love, The Swan Thieves is a story of obsession, the losses of history, and the power of art to preserve human hope.
